

Nr. 1 Attraction in Reykjavik

Perlan is a Must-Visit Landmark and Nature Exploratorium

World's First Indoor

Ice Cave and Glaciers Exploratorium

World's First Indoor Ice Cave

The Ice Cave is the first of its kind in the world. It is 100 meters long and built with over 350 tons of snow.

Glaciers Exhibit

A dramatic interactive exhibition that provides insight into Icelandic glaciers, their bleak future and the effects of climate change.

Iceland's Only Planetarium

Guaranteed Northern Lights

Experience Icelandic nature, through a breathtaking 360° masterpiece, in one of the world's most sophisticated planetariums.

Amazing Geological Wonders

Forces of Nature

Incredible Museum!

TripAdvisor – 2019

Such a variety of experiences! Do it all!
Plan at least 2 hrs. Wheelchair accessible, even in the ice cave!

.....

In the Forces of Nature exhibit, guests experience the power of volcanoes, earthquakes and geothermal energy.

Icelandic Museum of Natural History

Water in Icelandic Nature

reddot design award winner 2019

The exhibition will awaken interest and admiration for the nature of water and to inform about its wonders and importance for the future prosperity of society.

Augmented Reality Entertainment

Látrabjarg Cliff

Largest Seabird Cliff in Europe

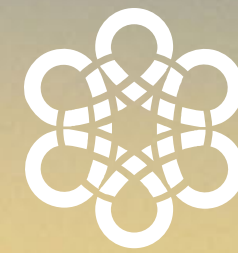

Looking up at this massive realistic model of Látrabjarg, guests will encounter the inhabitants of this natural skyscraper, through high-tech, augmented reality.

Virtual Aquarium

Guests explore Iceland's oceanic wonders in a Cinematic Underwater Journey, and watch in awe as whales swim below their feet.

Observation Deck

360° View of Reykjavík

PERLAN
Wonders of Iceland

Must See!

TripAdvisor – 2019

Amazing Museum Outlining The History Of Iceland.
Detailed Presentations On The Aurora Borealis, Volcanic History And Ice Caves.

Wonders Of Iceland

TripAdvisor – 2019

A Lot Of High-Tech And Interactivity. Definitely Worth
The Price (Very Affordable With The Student Discount).
There Is So Much Information.

Perlan.is

Kaffitár
Café

Út Í Bláinn
Restaurant

Rammagerðin
Gift Shop

Open 9:00-22:00